“ Grandma always made me laugh she always had a great personality. She always sent me cards for my birthday and valentines and other holidays. I will miss her so much. She loved her chocolate. Bob Evans was the last resteraunt we took her to. She always asked about my husband James. She was my last grandparent left. I know she missed grandpa so much. I'm glad she's with him now. Love and miss u so much grandma. Love Michelle

“ I lost my last grandparent, my Grandmother Georgia Lee Kramer, before I turned 21. Aunt Betty served honorably as my Godmother and was able to see me get married and meet my son. In a way it always felt as though she was my connection to all of them. I regrettably cannot attend the funeral, but the entire family is in my thoughts and prayers. She lived a full life and will be missed incredibly here in this life.
