“ One of my favorite memories are Bonner at the camper drinking beer with Barry or watching Barry work or going with Barry to Lowes or an auction or to Barry's dad's to get wood then back to camp and drink beer and supervise while Barry worked some more. Or when they watched sports on the TV and yelled and yelled when their team scored. Or when he put on the crazy Steeler's pants (that he hated) because Sharon bought him and Barry matching pairs. He wore them proudly out of love. Then of course there were all the times he coughed up money for bingo. (knowing I'd loose)...lol

“ Dad loved to tell a funny story, even if it poked fun at himself. I remember one such story. He needed to make a trip to the Credit Union one day. Being a 2nd shifter, he got up and got himself around to run his errand. Needing a clean shirt, he pulled one out of the dryer and took off. He felt some weird stares during whatever stops he had to make. much funnier to hear him tell it, but he discovered, after he got home, that he had a static cling problem that kept a big pair of granny panties stuck to the back of his shirt!!!

“ Camping at back40 years ago. The ATV's were a big hit - especially with The creek right there to run them through. Dad and Barry just sitting on the patio drinking a cold beverage heard quite a strange noise from a distance away. after a while, I hear Barry ask Dad, Hey! Isn't that Bonner's shoe (pointing to the creek). Calmly, Dad says, he believes it is...shortly thereafter, the other shoe. Laughter, again, laughter. (Bonner was shoeless but ok).

“ One of my favorite memories is of a night long ago when we made it to cave lake for a weekend camping trip in our big giant tent. It was very late at night and everyone was tired and cranky. Dad was struggling to get this big tent set up in the pitch blackness. More than a few curse words were spoken as he tried to manage the task. Finally in a great state of frustration, he loudly yelled at my sister Janet....GO GET ME THE STAKES!!!!

Well, Janet hurried away and came back quickly with the steaks! That meat was not any help at all in setting up the tent that night, but it sure broke the tension. We laughed and laughed. Dad was rolling!!!
