“ I remember on the weekends our family would come over, the adults played cards and us(kids) would all play in the house. Or come over and go swimming on the weekend at the clubhouse. Also the time both families went to kiser lake and camped all weekend. Those were some fun times and memories, but all of us growing up and doing our own thing we grew apart. I shall miss aunt carolyn very much, but i will have the memories forever. I'm so sorry for the family lefted behind, I think all of us are missing a parent right now. It's all happening too close together, very sad, but at least we all have each to lean on. I love you guys!!
