“ I remember the first time my aunt and I went out together. To my surprise we could not enter the club, she was too young. She and I always laughed about this. She was my friend aunt. She was special to me.

“ To Marquita, Frank, Chris & other siblings & grands that I didn't mention.....you all are in our prayers. Know that you have a Savior to comfort & protect you through the days ahead.....be there for each other for the comfort that you all will need. Claudine was a beautiful, spirited & funny person to be around.....she would always make me laugh. Don't forget all the beautiful memories she's given you. We love you All !!
