“ Keith, This is a difficult time, I know, for you and your loved ones. My heart goes out to all of you, but I know you are surrounded by the care and comfort of family and friends, and by God's peace and grace. (I remember our times working together with fondness and great respect for your knowledge and fine ways of dealing with people.)

“ I miss watching Elvis movies with you and listening to you sing them aloud. That was really funny! I am sorry you were hurting. I will miss coming to your house every week and chasing your birds. Love, Trent Sexton

“ Cleo, I knew this day was quickly approaching after our last conversation Tuesday when you were in ICU. I am so glad we were given those last few hours together to say our peace. I miss you and love you so very much. I hated seeing you in so much pain, and I know you are with Uncle Al and dad now looking down on us.

I will treasure all the memories we had together laughing, hanging out and talking. The kids are taking this very hard and they miss you so much too (Tyler, Taylor, Trent and Kiera). You were such a great role model to us all and for that I will always be thankful.

I know you are in a better place, but I miss seeing that stubborn, independent, energetic lady with such beautiful face looking back at me. I will never ever forget you! You hold a huge spot in my heart that will forever belong to us (you and me)!

Until we meet again, remember how much I adore you, miss you and love you. God rest your soul, love always your great niece,
Nikki L. Wagle
