“ A very dear friend. Many memories of good times in Springfield and Indian Lake. We will always cherish the night he sang to us on our anniversary at Indian Lake Eagles while we danced. Our deepest sympathy. Bill and Mary Nevius

There's so many wonderful Memories, and things to say about my wonderful uncle Cloy, it would take a book to tell them all. So through tear filled eyes, I will just say, he will be missed by all that knew him, He was such a loving and caring person. He will be sadly missed. So until we meet again, in the sweet by and by. Love you uncle Cloy and may you R.I.P. Roy and Helen :(
