“ I worked with Crate at the Nation, and hung out a few times as well. I wish it could have been more, but real life always seems to get in the way. I am fortunate to have met Crate. I was even more fortunate to call him a friend. Even though we had not crossed paths since I moved away from Columbus 6 years ago (Man, has it really been that long??) I know if we had ran into one another it would be just like old times. I am still trying to process this situation; Crate was one of the good guys. Crate was one of this worlds bright spots, and this world got a little darker on Dec. 19th 2014.

“ Have known him for almost as long as I was an employee. He always would help out a friend in need. He was a bright spot in many a day. He will be missed.

“ I didn't personally know Crate. I am friends with his step mom Sami.

However, it sounds like he was a kind and loving soul. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

“ I love you so much.. You'd better come back to haunt me like you promised! Goodbye, my guardian angel... I hope that wherever you are, you are at peace now. I keep hoping this is just all a big joke and I'm gonna hit the enter button and you're gonna reply with an lol and a big smiley face... Don't worry about our boy.. you know he's in good hands.. you left a huge hole in the world by leaving us and an even bigger one in my heart... but I forgive you.. I know you didn't mean to and you would take it all back if you could.. save me a seat, Papa Bear! <3

“ Although we had a bit of a rough beginning together it didn't take long for me to love and most of all respect Crate for the good man that he was. He took great care of my daughter and my grandson. We had been speaking frequently om Facebook and the plan was for him to come visit me in March. I cannot express my shock and the sadness of this untimely passing. I will miss him every day that goes by and I will never forget all the great times we had together. The world lost a great man and if he had only realized how much he was loved, perhaps he would still be here. Be free and be happy my son and I will look for you as soon as I cross over. In fact if I know you you will be there to help me get there! I love you Crater!!
