“ My deepest sympathy to Vicki and family. I first met Danny when I worked at Schlishers Pizza Place in Enon. He was always smiling then and all the other times I would see him around town. Danny and Vicki were great neighbors on Pleasant street. I am so sorry to hear this. He will be greatly missed by many. Gods peace to you Vicki and the family

“ It's sad to hear this. Although it has been many, many years since I have spoken to Danny. I remember what a super guy he was. A gentle giant. Always friendly. And a good friend to have. I remember our days at Enon Elementary. I wish I would have kept in touch through the years. My loss for sure.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Danny, he always found more mushrooms than me, he even shared some of his favorite places but they just didn't pop up for me! He also made me a walking stick to use in the woods, the first one was too tall so Dan made a second one for me. We also compared produce from our gardens and he shared his vegetables with everyone, he was the best brother ever!
