

David Russell Weaver, Sr.

January 9, 1932 - April 19, 2016

WEAVER, David Russell Sr., 84, of South Charleston, passed away peacefully with his wife at his side, on Tuesday, April 19, 2016. He was born on January 9, 1932, in Uriah, Alabama, the son of the late William A. and Bertha C. (Harris) Weaver. David is survived by his beloved wife whom he cherished for their 61 years of marriage, Betty (Catchapaw) Weaver; son, David R. (Patricia) Weaver Jr.; grandchildren, Jeremy (Barbara) Weaver, Bryce Weaver and Adam Weaver; great-grandsons, Owen, Logan and Mason Weaver; 3 brothers and 1 sister; brothers-in-law, Richard (Cathy) Catchapaw and Winston Wayne Sr.; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends. He is preceded in death by 3 sisters. David was a proud veteran in the United States Navy, serving during the Korean War. He retired from WPAFB Civil Service as a Stationary Steam Engineer. Among his many enjoyments in life, he loved bowling which he once bowled a 300 and he coached at Victory Lanes. He also enjoyed umpiring little league baseball games and he loved camping and travelling with his wife and family. David and his wife are charter members of Triple Creek Sams Chapter 21 and have also been on the staff at Ohio Good Sam for 32 years where they serve as Assistant State Directors. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and brother who will be deeply missed but his legacy will live on in the lives he's touched. Viewing will be held on Saturday, April 23, 2016 from 10a.m-12p.m. at INGLING WILLIAMS & LEWIS FUNERAL HOME, South Charleston, with his son giving a eulogy beginning at 12. Military honors will follow at Plattsburg Cemetery.
