

Evelyn Louise Randall

August 31, 1926 - December 15, 2012

RANDALL, Evelyn L., 86, of Springfield, passed away peacefully on Saturday, December 15, 2012 in Springfield, Ohio. Evelyn was born on August 31, 1926, in Spring Valley, Ohio, the daughter of the late Harold B. and Leona (Stiles) Goodwin. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, William Russell Randall in 1974 and a son Michael in 1946, a sister, Betty Goodwin, a daughter-in-law, Marsha Ann Randall. She is survived by her sons and daughter-in-law, Robin R. and Sharon Randall and Roger R. Randall; grandchildren, Christopher Randall and wife Kelly, Heidi Seiffert and husband Grant; great-grandchildren, Grant Jr., Ansley and Chase Seiffert, Bradyn and Bayley Randall, Ashtyn and Aaron Young; and brother, Richard H. Goodwin. Evelyn was a member of the Bethel Lutheran Church. She worked at Young's Dairy for approximately 45 years and lived just outside of Yellow Springs from 1943 on. Evelyn loved watching the Red's play baseball and will be deeply missed by all. Evelyn will be buried by her husband at Glen Forest Cemetery in Yellow Springs. The burial will be at the family's convenience. Condolences may be expressed to her family by visiting www.jacksonlytle.com.

“ To ALL of the Randall / Goodwin Family, Please accept my deepest, heartfelt sympathy at the loss of dear Evelyn. It was a shock to me to read of her passing in 'The Springfield Paper' today (12-27-12)--had I known she was at Sterling House I would have surely gone to visit her! It is so difficult to lose a loved one around Christmas--I know your hearts are broken. Evelyn was greatly loved. Keep the good memories close at heart--she will always be with you! Thinking of you, and keeping you in prayer.

“ Hi, My name is Diane Hutchings and I visited your mom regularly at the Sterling House with my therapy dog, Brady. (She would always call him Brody!) We sat on several occasions and just talked about life in general. Your mom was a very intelligent and coherent person. I will truly miss her and her demeanor. She was such a good person. The last few weeks have certainly been a struggle for her. When I saw her last week, I tried to encourage her to eat so she could get strong. Apparently the good Lord had other plans.. May she rest in peace and maybe she will find my mother in heaven. She passed 2 years ago.

May you all find the strength to endure this loss, knowing she no longer suffers.

God Bless,

Diane Hutchings and Brady

“ I worked with Evelyn at Young's Jersey Dairy as a teenager and she was a truly delightful lady. Just remember that God has gained another angel.
