“Dad you were the best. I learned about life from you. How to be kind and help others. How to give not take it all the time it made my life so much better. I will never forget or regret the times we spent together and the little talks we had the car rides with the dogs, you always said money can't buy time like this .In hard times you always filled my heart with hope. You always had my back. And I always felt your love. This is what you left behind for me your greatest passion your character(and your dog) . You were a very well respected and loved by most everyone. No matter how we screwd up you always loved your family unconditionally. This is what I will treasure for the rest of my life. Until we see you again Terry, Blake , Sasha and I love you and will miss you .
