

Gladys Louise Doolittle

August 27, 1927 - March 30, 2016

DOOLITTLE, Gladys Louise, of South Charleston, passed away March 30, 2016 at Springfield Regional Medical Center. Gladys was born August 27, 1927, to Charles and Goldie (Simpson) Eutsler. She attended South Charleston High School and the South Charleston United Methodist Church. She worked as a buyer at the Edward Wren's Store in downtown Springfield before going to work at Gohl's Supermarket in South Charleston. Gladys retired from Community Market and Locker in Port William, Ohio, a business owned by her father and brother. She loved to cook and bake (especially pies) and made sure everyone had plenty to eat when she put on a meal. She made beautiful embroidery pieces, most of which she gave away. Her joy in later years was sitting at her kitchen table writing letters and sending cards to her friends. Besides her parents, Gladys is preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, James, in 2014; a brother, Robert Eutsler; an infant brother and her infant twin sister. As a loving mother, she leaves behind one daughter, Bette Ross of Fairborn. Also survived by an aunt, Virginia Davis of Urbana; a special cousin, Ginger Bageant of South Charleston; and numerous friends she considered so special and like family. Viewing will be held on Sunday, April 3, 2016 from 2-5p.m. at INGLING WILLIAMS & LEWIS FUNERAL HOME-South Charleston, with a celebration of her life on Monday, April 4, 2016 at 10a.m. Rev. Doug Thompson and Rev. Ray Gage will be officiating. Burial will follow at Greenlawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Animal Welfare league, c/o Libby Bates

Adams, 701 Basswood Drive, Springfield, Ohio 45504, or a charity of your choice. A special thanks to the staff at Villa and ICU Unit at the hospital who gave Gladys outstanding care these last days. Condolences may be expressed to her family at www.jacksonlytle.com.

“ Prayers and blessings, your mom and dad always treated me the greatest when I saw them and when I delivered the newspaper to them as a young boy. RIP.

“ Bette, I am so sorry for your loss. Your mom was a very special person. I remember her pies, oh how good they were. I have many of her hand crafted items sitting among my most cherished pieces. My Christmas tree isn't complete with out her ornaments. She and my mom (Phyllis Thomas) were the best of friends. I'm sure they are having a great chat along with the coffee and sharing wonderfull recipes.
