“ Dear Jan, Jim and Carl: I was so sorry to hear of the passing of your Mom. I do remember meeting her and your Dad many years ago in Columbus. I know her health was failing and we can only pray that she is at peace. The picture of her is so beautiful and I can certainly see the resemblance. May the days ahead be filled with good memories. Know that your friends are sending love and support.

“ Jan, Jim and Carl.....we are sorry about your loss of your mother, Irene. She led a hard life in the years I knew her when... you consider her petite stature; but, her heart was big, always accepting my frequent visits with laughter and acceptance. Living to 91 shows the spunk she had through good and bad. I hope that she and Willie have reunited to continue their watch over each of you. Now is the time to show her your spunk and strive to live a great life until you meet again. We love you all, Kaye and Jerry Smith
