“Uncle Jack, Aunt Georgia, Carol, and Bruce were such an important part of my childhood. I forget how old we were before my brothers and I realized that we weren't really related to all of you. You were "family" by choice. There are so many fond memories. Uncle Jack will always be in my heart. Prayers, love and friendship go out to all of you. Karen Anderson Volpe

“Judith and I have many fond memories of working with Jack in West Virginia. He was an exceptionally fine servant of the Lord. We often traveled with him to leadership training conferences for Vacation Bible school workers in Jan. Many times the roads were ice or snow covered as we traveled to Ohio, or North Carolina. On one occasion we had stayed at a motel and the over night snow had drifted high around his car. He called ahead and they said to come on to the training meeting the weather was fine.. After he shoveled the snow away from his car we proceeded on our journey and the snow and slick roads became even more hazardous. Hundreds of cars had slid off the road before we got to Indianapolis. But both of our cars had made it to the destination where we would be staying. He never complained about being misinformed about the conditions in Indianapolis. He was faithful and positive in the hardest conditions. Jon F Caudle

“Bruce and Liz: We fondly remember the many happy days we shared with Jack and Georgia Walls at FBC Fairborn. Always, we held them in the highest esteem because of their integrity, their friendliness, and their deep Christian faith. They were truly the best of the best. They served our Lord so faithfully all their lives. We cannot remember a single criticism of them from anyone. They were so dedicated, but so humble. We shall always remember them as the ideal Christian Leaders. Love you!

“ Our memories of Jack are too numerous to list. His sweet presence, calming voice and gentle spirit, will live on in others whose lives he touched. Today I'm sad for his family he left behind but comforted to know he will receive his great reward when he hears our Lord say, "well done good and faithful servant". May God grant those left behind peace and comfort. Georgia, Bruce, Liz, Carol, Bert, and all the grandchildren , and their families. To brothers and sisters Phyllis, Patty, Larry, Ronnie, and to the neices and nephews let's rejoice that Jack is now in his heavenly home and we will see him one day soon. May God grant you peace and comfort during this time of loss. Love you all. STEVE AND KATHY SMITH

“ Jack Walls left a living legacy to the Glory of God. We treasure the memories of serving on the staff with him in the European Baptist Convention in Wiesbaden, Germany..;His servant heart, commitment, humor, dedication was a blessing to all who worked with him. Jack and Georgia were a team in ministry and we learned many life lessons from them.

*Our thoughts
and prayers are with the family and friends.*

“Jackson Walls, as my dad always called you. Perhaps I would not be here if it weren't for you. You introduced my mom and dad to each other many years ago. And then stayed on for a lifelong friendship. As the old song goes....." Thank you for being a friend!"

“I just heard of Jack's passing. My prayers are with you all. Jack did more for me than he ever knew and I have thought of him often. He empowered me in my faith and encouraged me personally - he was very much instrumental in the building of my self-esteem. I remember choir and lessons taught. God blessed me through Jack and I pray I am passing on at least some of the lessons he taught me.
