

James I. Messer

February 12, 1959 - December 24, 2014

MESSER, James Irvin, passed away on December 24, at Springfield Regional Medical Center, surrounded by his family. He was born on February 12, 1959 in Portsmouth, Ohio to Curtis and Esther Messer. He was a joker, he was a smoker, he was a midnight toker, but most of all, he was a caring, loving, and devoted family man. He is survived by his wife of 34 years, Karen Messer; son, Curtis (Sarah); daughter, Jamie (Kurt); and two granddaughters, Kaylee and Aubrey. We are comforted to know he is drinking a beer with his brother and best friend, Randy Messer who passed in 2006. Services will be held on Tuesday, December 30, 2014 at 6 p.m. with viewing from 4-6 at JACKSON LYTTLE & LEWIS LIFE CELEBRATION CENTER. Condolences may be expressed to his family by visiting www.jacksonlytle.com.

Karen, Jamie and Curtis I am truly sorry for your loss. Jimmy is with those that have passed before him and love him as much as you love him. I am sure Randy was waiting for him with two cold beers but Mom may have gotten to Jimmy first and gave him a huge hug. I have felt the loss of all those that have passed and have cried just along with you with the passing of Carol and Randy. You are all in my hearts and prayers at this very sad time. Along with time comes a lot of healing, Jimmy is my brother and I love him and I also feel all of you pain. Love Debbie
