“The angels are always near to those who are grieving, to whisper to them that their loved ones are safe in the hand of God. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. Those we love and lose are always connected by heartstrings into infinity. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.

“ I am very sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I had not seen him in quite some time since the Eagles closing and relocating. Jim was a very dedicated Eagles member. He planned and executed many enjoyable trips to the Indiana casinos over the years. I met Jim and had the pleasure of sitting next to him on one of these bus trips. We had a good conversation. He was a fine gentleman.

He also took charge of placing the food collection barrels in the Eagles at Christmas and Thanksgiving and then taking the food to the centers so it could be distributed to needy family's. I'm sure there were other ways he gave of himself to support the Eagles and the community that went unnoticed.

I will miss his hand wave to say 'Hello' and his winning smile. I wish to express my deepest sympathy to his family. He will be sorely missed.
