

Janice P. Miesse

July 20, 1950 - November 14, 2013

On the sad early morning of November 14, 2013, Janice Miesse aka "Mammaw Jan" aka "Momma" aka "Woman" was ripped from the presence of her family leaving 20 grandchildren, 7 children - Rickey Jr., Heidi, Jill, Mark, Wendy, Samuel, and Suzy, her devoted husband Rickey who was affectionately known to her as "Senior," and countless friends and family members in a wake of overwhelming distress. She made the best grilled cheese, sweet tea, and chocolate chip cookies in the world. She could beat anyone at ping-pong regardless of their age, was a formidable opponent in passionate games of Boggle, and was known to join in for family soccer and ultimate frisbee. She compassionately loved people, especially children, and spent much time in her life teaching Sunday school and loving her family. She was creative and beautiful and generous and crazy and fun and we cannot express the depths of our sadness; however, as we know she loved God and she accepted His gift of grace, we know we will meet her again for a heavenly family reunion. She has already reunited with her daughter, Molly Jan, who preceded her in death and they are waiting to see us, just as we are waiting to see them, again. This, and the earthly comfort of the many who loved her, is our solace in this time of deep loss and will sustain us until we meet her again. Her family will receive friends on Sunday, November 17, 2013 from 2-5p.m. at JACKSON LYTTLE & LEWIS LIFE CELEBRATION CENTER, Springfield, where a celebration of her life will be held on Monday, November 18, 2013 at 10a.m. Pastor Larry Marvel officiating. Burial to follow at Glen Haven Memorial Gardens. Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.jacksonlytle.com.

“ Wendy and Miesse Family,
Just wanted to say I am sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful person. I always loved seeing her at the election polls and catching up with her on how you all are doing.
It is definitely not fair losing a loved one at such a young age. I am praying and thinking of you during this difficult time and during the holidays.

Thank you Meagan. I know it's a late reply but I appreciate your kindness. It isn't fair that we both had to lose a parent so young. It still all doesn't make sense and is very hard, but I hold on to God and that great hope, and the love from our family and friends.

“ We look forward to the time we will be united with our loved ones again. The Bible tell us at John 5:28-29, that this could be possible. It read as following: (John 5:28, 29) (28) Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (29) and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
