

Jean M. McCulloch

June 7, 1923 - February 10, 2013

McCulloch, Jean M., 89 of Springfield died peacefully Sunday, February 10 at home after a brief illness. She was born on June 7, 1923 in Springfield OH, the daughter of Houston and Helen (Ness) Moores. Jean attended Springfield High School and graduated from Sweetbriar College (Virginia) in 1945. She married Rudolph McCulloch in 1953 and her love of the outdoors led her to a farm near Pitchin where she raised beef cattle and horses, eventually training and showing a national champion pleasure horse. Jean will be remembered as a caring woman who was very passionate about the people and causes that she loved. She was a long time volunteer for the Clark County Heritage Center, and was a tireless advocate for the deaf community in Springfield and for Glen Helen in Yellow Springs. Jean was an avid gardener, enjoyed playing music and was a member of several dulcimer groups and an old time fiddle band. She loved genealogy and had traveled to Norway several times to visit distant cousins still living there. She was preceded in death by her husband Rudolph and a son, Rudolph Jr. Survivors include her son Bill and his partner Brenda of Springfield, stepson Joe and Kathy McCulloch of Minneapolis, grandchildren Sarah, Michael and Caitlin, and numerous great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Private burial will be in Ferncliff Cemetery. Calling hours and a celebration of Jean's life will be held at her family farm, 7391 S. Pitchin Road, Saturday, Feb 16, from 3-6 pm. Arrangements in care of JACKSON LYTLE & LEWIS FUNERAL HOME.

Tribute Wall

Molly
Chiles

“ Jeannie was a dear friend of my mother's, Charlotte Patterson. She was so good to keep in contact with my mother in the last years of her life. And, of course, we grew up in the Moores' home on South Kensington. It was a wonderful home to our family. Our sympathy to the family.

Molly Patterson Chiles

Molly Chiles - February 21, 2013 at 03:01 PM