“ My heart goes out to Jordan's family. Loss of a child, regardless of age, is a terrible reversal of what we plan for life to be. It's a deep pain that lives for a very long time in the very core of the people left behind. My prayers that you find loving friends to walk beside you through this dark valley, and that eventually your laughter and music will return to you. ”

“ I remember when the softball team i coach the a dart tournament as a fundraiser Jordan and his partner Ricky were one of the first teams to sign up. He didn't care about the prize money or even how well they did. When i talked to Jordan that day all he wanted to know was if my ball team had reached the goal we had set. Just like Roger and Jamie all that mattered to him was if a friend of his was successful. Jordan fly high and don't ever let that baby go and we won't ever let either of you go from our hearts
