

Julia A. Damewood

February 25, 1940 - March 5, 2014

DAMEWOOD, Julia Ann (Dever), age 74, passed away on Wednesday, March 5, 2014, at Springfield Regional Medical Center. She was born to the late William and Sabina "Gertrude" Dever in Harmony, Ohio on February 25, 1940. Julia graduated from Northeastern High School in 1958, and later married the love of her life, William "Bill" Damewood in 1962. She enjoyed crafts of all kinds; knitting, crocheting, sewing, quilting, her daily car rides, bird watching, and playing euchre with her friends. Julia was also a member of the Northeastern High School 50's Alumni Committee. Julia is survived by her husband, Bill Damewood of Mechanicsburg; two sons, Mark Damewood of Mechanicsburg, and Douglas (Donna) Damewood of Brookville; grandson, Douglas A. Damewood II; as well as nephew, Thomas Dever, and niece, Jeri Rose. Along with her parents, Julia was preceded in death by two brothers, Richard and Joseph Dever, and sister, Viola Moon. Visitation will be held on Monday, March 10, 2014 from 4-6pm, at JACKSON LYTLE & LEWIS LIFE CELEBRATION CENTER, Springfield. Services will immediately follow at 6pm, with Richard Cartwright officiating. Condolences may be made to the family by visiting www.jacksonlytle.com.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I hadn't stayed in contact with Julia for the past few years, but we had some great times together playing euchre and visiting. She was a good person and will be sadly missed.

“ She and I were Buddies for many years until we moved to Las Vegas, always enjoyed catching up with her whenever I could. Love her and Bill and Mark and Dough very much. She is definitely missed. Spread your wings and fly Julia, you earned them.
