“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our heavenly Creator will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! May this promise as recorded in Revelation 21:3,4 be of comfort to you as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead. Philippians 4:13.

“ Although I never had the pleasure to meet Martha, my wife, Cheryl, had told me about the time she went shopping with Martha and her daughter-in-law, Sheryl. And also the time they all would play games together at Jon and Sheryl's house. My wife said that Martha was such a sweet and kind lady who had a great sense of humor. I know she will be missed by all. I look forward to some day meeting Martha in heaven. Chris Chrystal

“ Thinking of the family at this time of loss - pray that God will comfort all. We have the memory of being Martha's neighbor for a part of her life - a good person and a good neighbor - now at rest with God. I am sure that the family has many many wonderful memories of her and will relish them as their lives go forward.
