“ Mary and I were roomies in my house on Cedar St for a few months when she was dating Phil. My Dad assigned her the task of keeping me out of trouble - like that worked! Then she married Phil, went to the big brick house and the last time I would say I saw Mary was at the orchard when Rusty was ill. We shared our stories about having an ill child and then both passed. She had a beautiful smile! Full of laughs - . What a team she and Phil were. My sincere sympathy to all the family - Eddie and David for sure.
