“ Dear Greenwood Family,

When I first came to CU back in 1979 May was ever so helpful. I recall losing a button on my sport coat just before a meeting with some trustees and it was May who calmly sewed it back on just before the powwow. She was a true servant and lover of Jesus Christ and part of Cedarville's golden age. I am praying for Ed and the entire Greenwood clan. "When we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing it will truly be"...God Bless. Mike DiCuirci
