“ Irene, I love you and will always. You were an very loving and sweet mother in law, you and I became very close, as mother and daughter and best friends. We have shared many memories that I will cherishd always. You have taught me many things, learning to make gravy from scratch. I still have that bowl that we used to this day. I will miss you terribly. I am so thankful for the memories that we have shared and for the time you lived with us. You will always be my mother in law and a best friend/mother to me. Love you always and forever. Kay

Irene "Neen" was not only a dear sis-in-law, but also one of the BEST friends in my life. Too many life experiences to count and I wouldn't trade one of them. Each one has a special memory tied to it and I treasure them all. So very thankful for the time we shared at our last visit. What a special blessing from God. I look forward to meeting you again soon in Heaven with Jesus at the throne of God where we'll never be separated again! Forever love, Linda
