“ Our family lived across the street from Pauline and Ben for many years. When I came back to visit with Stephen Pauline would always be at the door that first day with her famous coffee cake and chocolate chip cookies. She was always genuinely interested in how we were doing in California. When my dad died Pauline always was very inclusive of my mom. She was a very special friend to our entire family.

“ Condolences to the Broock sons and their families from Linda Zitsman Chernick and brother Jeff Zitsman. Pauline and Ben were part of our Springfield "family" for many years, and we have very fond memories of them both. Pauline was such a loving, caring woman. She left her mark on many hearts.

“ We are the grandchildren of Joseph E. Grube and Elizabeth Grube on New Carlisle Pike in Springfield. My grandfather worked for Ben for many years as his accountant at the Scrap Metal business. Both he and Grandma couldn't say enough positive about Mr. and Mrs. Broock as a boss, but also as upstanding folks in the community. Pauline will be greatly missed in the temple and among her friends. Patty Grube Harris, Ronald Grube, and Mary Grube Roark.....all children of Joseph and Elizabeth Grube's son, Robert E. Grube of Springfield, Ohio. May all of you be blessed.

I remember your grandfather very well. I think he loved to smoke his pipe and was one of the nicest and gentlest persons I have ever met. He and Dad really had a great friendship and it was an honor to know him. I didn't spend much time there but your grandfather made a great impression on me. Thanks for your thoughts.
