

Randall G Thompson

December 16, 1947 - August 18, 2015

THOMPSON, Randall G. 67, of Springfield, passed away Tuesday, August 18, 2015 at Springfield Regional Medical Center. He was born on December 16, 1947, in Cady Township, Wisconsin, the son of the late Harry R. and Nellie E. (Eggman) Thompson. Randall is survived by the love of his life, wife of almost 44 years, Selva (Brown); daughters and sons-in-law, Kimberly and Jason Clark and Kristina and Matthew Kirk; grandchildren, Jason Clark, age 21, Desirée Clark, age 17, Emilio Clark, age 2 and Oliver Kirk, age 2; special nieces, Lynette Jagels, Debra Hurr, Diane Harris and Elizabeth Cowen; brothers and sisters-in-law, Ronald and Donna Thompson, Tom and Judy Thompson and Galen Thompson; sisters and brothers-in-law, Esther Krueger, Lillian and Wally Reidel, Colleen and Gene Slama and Carol Brown; and many nieces, nephews and friends. Along with his parents, he is preceded in death by his sister, Irene Engstrom; and brother-in-law, Harlow Brown. Randall was a proud veteran of the United States Army and retired from Wright Patterson Air Force Base after 34 years. He received his Bachelors in economics from the University of Wisconsin in Riverfalls. Randall was a selfless man who always put others needs before his own. He helped everyone he could, loved everyone he met and he never met a stranger. He was a great handyman and wonderful friend, but above all, he was a devoted husband, father and grandfather who will be deeply missed. Condolences may be expressed to his family by visiting www.jacksonlytle.com or by joining them in a celebration of Randy's life at their home, 3753 Chickasaw Ave.

Springfield, Ohio 45502 on Saturday, August 29 from 2-4p.m.

Tribute Wall

JR

“ Moe & I want to send our condolences to the Thompson family on the death of Randy. We have many fond memories of him whenever we would visit Tom & Lynette in Dayton. Please know that you all will be remembered in our prayers.

Jane & Moe Romeo - August 28, 2015 at 10:39 AM