“ Please accept my sincere sympathy on the recent loss of your dear loved one. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. May the God of comfort be with you in this time of sorrow. May these words bring you hope, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:4) This promise will be fulfilled one day, until then, may all your memories sustain you in the days to come

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. May each of you find comfort in God's Word and in the knowledge that so many sympathize with you for your loss. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. These scriptures will bring you comfort, hope and peace.

“ Pete had an awesome sense of humor. He always made me laugh and was so much fun to be around and to work with. He was very proud of Cedarville and the people that came from and lived there. Pete loved the Browns and the Reds but not as much as he loved his family. I have too many memories to list. I will miss Pete. I am praying for comfort for all. I am so sorry for your loss.

Emily 'Conklin' Kaufman - March 22, 2013 at 12:19 PM

This might be more for the family but when I lost my biological mom in June I had a hard time leaving the grave side. There was. A butterfly just bugging me. Then when I went to my car my daughter said that they often show up to a loved one. I tried to get a picture but it kept moving when I was ready to snap it. I haven't gone back over to her grave since then, it's too soon, but I feel she is telling me she is ok. Pete never had anyone that didnt like him as far as I know. I believe he is without pain now an he in someway will let you know just as my mother lets me know.
