

Terry L. Mitchem

September 9, 1968 - March 26, 2013

MITCHEM, Terry L., 44 of Cleveland, Ohio went to be with the Lord to teach the wonderful angels in heaven. He was born September 9, 1968 in Springfield, Ohio. Terry enjoyed teaching and taught in the Cleveland areas for many years. Most of all he enjoyed spending time with his three wonderful daughters and granddaughter that he cherished. He is survived by his daughters, Jessica, Alexis, Emma Mitchem and granddaughter Nevaeh Mitchem; his loving parents, Ted and Gloria Mitchem; a devoted brother to his twin, Jerry (Kim) and other siblings, Betsy (Danny), Ted Jr., Tim (Kim), Samantha and Jesse (Amy); and the mother of his children, Mary Manos-Mitchem. He was a loving son, brother, uncle, great-uncle and friend to many. Terry will be sadly missed to all who knew him. He is preceded my death by his niece, Christina Shaw. A celebration of Terry's life will be held on Wednesday, April 3, 2013 at 7 p.m. at JACKSON LYTLE & LEWIAS FUNERAL HOME. Viewing will be held two hours prior to service. Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.jacksonlytle.com.

“ Thinking of Ted and Gay Mitchem (brother and sister-in-law) today, as they bid farewell to one of their seven wonderful children...

"It's heartbreaking whenever a parent loses a child... the rest of us can only share in their sorrow, their tears, and their memories... but never in the void of their bonding hugs, for the embrace of a child and his parent is ultimately felt in the beating of two hearts communicating a unique and different kind love; pure, unconditional and evermore."

“ Ted and Gay and Family,

Our deepest sympathy, and our heartfelt love go out to you and yours during this difficult and very sad time...

Bereavement is such a personal thing, and only those who have experienced your kind of loss can understand how terribly effected with grief you are right now. Please know that our hearts go out to you, and to all of Terry's loved ones, family, and friends. In the days ahead, I hope you find peaceful moments drenched in only good and loving memories of your son, and I hope you all come to an understand and accept why this untimely loss came to be.

Though we did not truly know Terry, or any of your other children for that matter, we do know that each one of them are a loving treasure in the life of the Mitchem family. And though I have met and gotten to know each of them down through the years only briefly, I feel that your kids are all intelligent, loving, and unique children each in their own way. And I want you to know that Jack and I have always been proud of you both for all your accomplishments in raising such a large family. I hope you can remember that I've told you this many times over through years now. And though it wasn't always an easy road to travel in providing for your children, and that you both have had your share of heartaches in the past, we're proud of you both for managing to keep your family ties from unraveling, not an easy task.

Know that you are both in our thoughts and prayers today as the hours unfold and you say goodbye to your loving son.

Love, Jack and Dianne (Steele) Cogar

“ Ted, Gay and family,

We were so shocked to hear this news just yesterday. Jack and I, and our family, want you to know that our hearts go out to you during this difficult and sad time.

Prayers are that you all find peaceful moments and understanding in the days ahead. And our wish is that you reminisce and continue to feel the joy of ever having such a wonderful son. I hope you find reason to smile again and go on with your lives while sheltering the preciousness of love and family. Bereavement is something so personal to each of us, and unless one experiences your personal misfortune, none of us could fathom the heartbreak you feel in losing a child...though I cry in your sorrow.

Unfortunately, our family never knew Terry well, as with the rest of your kids. But I know, personally, just from the brief encounters I've had with each of your children through the years, my nieces and nephews, that all your kids are bright and fun-loving sharing in life's enthusiastic journey, and each are unique and special in their own way too. I want you to know that Jack and I think you both did an amazing job in raising your children and in maintaining a special bond with each after they had grown. We've always felt this way about you guys. And in considering life's many difficulties that often hinder the way in keeping such a large family in closeness, we are both equally impressed (and proud) that you managed a feat of love and respect in the mix that many of us only dream of.

We hope you know that all of you are in our hearts and in our prayers today as you bid farewell to a loving son, nephew, brother, uncle, father, grandpa and friend.

Love, Jack and Dianne (Steele) Cogar
