“ For my Aunt Terri,
She was the strongest woman I have ever met. I loved her so much and looked up to her every single day of my life. She knew how to put me in my place and open my eyes for the bigger picture. She is one of the reasons I let God back into my life. She was one of the only family members that I had in my life who was there for me, who knew me better than I knew myself, who understood me and who looked out for me. I am truly blessed to be able to say that I had someone like her in my life. I honestly can say it hasn't hit me yet that she is gone. But I am so happy that she is no longer struggling or in pain and that she is with the big guy upstairs because she had more love for him than anyone I have ever met. I love you so much and I will never forget you or the impact you've made on my life.
Love always, Darci Balog (your doodle bug)

“ Terri...Ducky....Her humor, sass, great friendship over the past, oh, decade or so has only made me wish I'd known her longer. Equally, I wish I'd been able to meet her in person, but we got to be friendly when we were both largely online and she was a force of nature and humor and I loved so much that she could find the silly in nearly any situation. To her family, my sincere love and gratitude. To Ducky, sleep sweet, dear one. Fly high. I'll think of you every time I watch "Miracles".

“ Terri was a good friend. I will miss her humor and her sarcastic wit, her smile and her constant encouragement. She was one of my favorite members of my church family. Terri was a blessing to me on more than one occasion. Heaven has surely gained one lively angel!
