“ I remember, as a kid, walking down the hill from grandma Lowe's to the Seegraves home. Always happy and warm memories. We didn't get to spend much time in Springfield but my memories of the whole "extended family" there are some of my best. Peace be with you all, and I know HIS grace surrounds not only "Uncle Bill" but the entire family.

“ Deepest sympathy for your loss. I didn't know him, but, I know what a fine person he must have been, because I know his son, Tom. I want the family to know his years of service and personal sacrifice for our country is appreciated more than you know.

Sincerely,
