

Wilma D. Charlton

August 8, 1923 - April 17, 2013

CHARLTON, WILMA D., 89, of Springfield, was born August 8, 1923 in Soldier, Kentucky to the late Mary (Carroll) and James Estes. She passed away Wednesday, April 17, 2013 at Springfield Regional Medical Center. Wilma is survived by a son, Michael (Victoria) Litton; sisters, Geneva, Ruth, Shirley, Julie, Mildred and Mary Jo; two grandchildren, Shawn and Melissa; two great-grandchildren, Bailey and Megan; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband Jim Charlton in 1974, brothers, Eric and James; sisters, Jean and Lora. Friends and family may call from 6 -8 pm Thursday, April 18, 2013 at JACKSON LYTLE & LEWIS FUNERAL HOME, Springfield. A service to celebrate her life will be held 1pm Friday, April 19, 2013, also at the funeral home with Walter Mock officiating. Burial will immediately follow at Ferncliff Cemetery. The family would like to express their sincere appreciation to the caregivers of Oakwood Village who are also her family. Condolences may be made to the family by visiting www.jacksononlytle.com.

Cemetery Details

Ferncliff Cemetery

Springfield, OH

Tribute Wall

LF

“ Dear Mike and Vicki, I just heard about Wilma this morning when I got to work.As you know I was very fond of her. We had great conversations. I will miss her greatly and will think of her often with a smile on my face of course. My thoughts are with you. I will be there in thought since I will be working. Bless you and your family.Lori Franks LPN

Lori Franks - April 18, 2013 at 03:10 PM

TV

“ I am so sad to hear of Aunt Willie's passing....she was always very loved and such a great person. I know that she will be happy to jpin Grandma and Grandpa as well as my Dad (Jim). I will miss her. I wish comfort and peace for all of our family.

Terri Villavicencio - April 18, 2013 at 09:44 AM